Art Unit: 1713

1. This Office Action is in response to IDS (1 page) filed on May 6, 2005. No Pre-Amendment is received. This Application 10/534,233 is from 371/JP03/14184 with a Japanese priority at November 8, 2002. Claims 1-5 are now pending with three independent claims (Claim 1, Claim 3 and Claim 4). Applicants need to confirm the number of independent claims to be "3" instead of "1" as disclosed in USPTO's Bib Data Sheet. An action follows.

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1, this is based on the preliminary search done by the examiner as well as by examining the references cited in international search report and IDS filed by Applicants. It is noted that all four independent claims are marked with an underline and are combined with its dependent claims.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted as following: It is noted that two independent claims are marked with an underline

I. Claims 1 and 2, drawn to a fluorine-containing polymer for treating masonry.

The polymer is comprising two monomers including: (1) a fluoroalkyl group-containing monomer, and (2) a silicon-containing monomer in the amount of 2.0 to 6.0 % by weight based on the polymer; classified in class 526, subclass 242.

II. Claim 3, drawn to a composition for treating masonry. The composition is comprising two components including: (A) a fluorine-containing polymer of Group I, and (B) an organic solvent; classified in class 524, subclass 500.

III. Claims 4 and 5, drawn to a method of producing a treated masonry. The method is comprising two steps including: (A) applying a mixture (a composition of Group II and an organic solvent) to a surface of a masonry, and then (B) removing the solvent; classified in class 526, subclass 245.

3. Where the group of inventions is claimed in one and the same international application, the requirement for unity of invention referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression “special technical features” shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions considered as a whole, makes over the prior art. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule

13.2, although they share the special technical feature, this special technical feature does not define a contribution over the prior art for the following reasons:

4. In view of international search report for PCT/JP03/14184 filed on November 7, 2003 by Applicants, Examiner's own prior art search as well as the references or articles cited in one IDS filed so far by Applicants, Claims 1-5 is either obvious or anticipated by following: Delescluse (US 4,366,300), Schmidt et al. (US 4,592,930) and Linert et al. (WO 97/00230), each individually or in combination. In summary, these two groups have no common features in the preparation as well as its application since they are structurally different. The scope of the claims, i.e., the metes and boundaries are distinct. Accordingly, the special technical feature linking the inventions, the active silicon-containing fluoropolymer and its composition as well as its process of using from Group I, Group II and Group III does not provide a contribution over the prior art, and no single general inventive concept exists. Therefore the restriction is appropriate.

5. With respect to the fact that "both groups are structurally different each other", Group I was drawn to an active silicon-containing fluoropolymer, Group II was drawn to a composition, while Group III was drawn to the process of using such a composition of Group II. The fluoropolymer and its composition and the process of using are unique and thereby not interchangeable.

Art Unit: 1713

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above shown as different subject matters and the search required for each group is not required for other groups have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. It is noted that one phone call was made to Abraham J. Rosner (registration # 33,276, tel: 202 293-7060) on August 13, 2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Conclusion
